Candidates

Q9. I want to be a candidate in these elections. What do I need to do?

A You must be a New Zealand citizen and your name must be on the Parliamentary Electoral Roll (anywhere in New Zealand).

You will need to have two electors registered in the area of the election you are standing for to nominate you – e.g. if you stand for the Kōhanga Mōa General Ward, the nominators will need to be two electors enrolled on the General Parliamentary Electoral Roll. (Note the candidate does not need to reside in the area in which they are standing but will need to disclose that fact in their candidate profile statement).

The nominators must also be on the Parliamentary Electoral Roll at the address they are listed on the nomination paper (which must be in the area that they are nominating the person for).

Nominations open on Friday 15 July 2022. If you would like a nomination paper and candidate information handbook sent out, please contact the electoral office closer to this date. Nomination papers will also be available on council's website (www.npdc.govt.nz) from 15 July 2022.

A candidate information handbook will be available in April 2022.

Candidate campaigning can commence any time prior to the election (no time restriction), but any expenditure made within or outside the three-month applicable period before election day must be accounted for.

Q10. How much will it cost me to stand?

A You will need to pay a nomination deposit of $200 GST inclusive. This deposit applies to each election you stand for.

Your nomination deposit can be paid by cash, EFTPOS, credit card or electronic bank transfer. Cheques will not be accepted.

If you poll more than 25% of the final quota as determined by the last iteration (for STV elections) you will receive your nomination back.

Q11. What qualifications and experience do I need?

A Nothing formal. Elected members come from all walks of life and generally have a will/desire to serve the community

All (or some) of the following capabilities will be useful in the elected member role:

- quality decision-making;
- political acumen;
- leadership;
- cultural awareness;
- strategic thinking;
- knowledge and understanding of New Plymouth District Council and local government;
- communication and engagement; relationship building and collaboration.

Q12. Does a criminal record affect a person standing as a Council candidate?

A No, not for the New Plymouth District Council elections.

Q13. How long is the term of the elected member?

A Three years.

Q14. Do I need to be resident in the area I am standing for?

A No, but you must be on the Parliamentary Electoral Roll (anywhere in New Zealand) and be a New Zealand citizen (by birth or naturalisation ceremony). You will however need to disclose whether or not you reside in the area you are standing for in the candidate profile statement.

The two people who nominate you must be on the Parliamentary Electoral Roll within the area you are standing for.

Q15. Do I need to be on the Māori electoral roll or of Māori descent if I am standing for election in a Māori ward?

A No. To be eligible you must be a New Zealand citizen and your name must be on the Parliamentary Electoral Roll (anywhere in New Zealand).

You will need to be nominated by two electors whose names appear on the Māori electoral roll within the area of election for which you are standing.

Equally if you are on the Māori electoral roll you can stand in a general ward, and will need to be nominated by two electors whose names appear on the general electoral roll within the area of election for which you are standing.

Q16. How many positions can I stand for?

A You can stand for mayor and a councillor, and a community board member but if you are elected to more than one position, you take the highest ranked position.

You cannot stand for more than one ward or for both an 'at large' councillor position and a ward councillor position.

You also cannot stand for both the New Plymouth District Council and the Taranaki Regional Council.

Q17. Can I withdraw my nomination as a candidate?

A Only if it is withdrawn before the close of nominations. You cannot withdraw voluntarily after nominations have closed. If you decide to opt out, your name will still appear on the voting document.

If you do change your mind and decide not to run for election after you have been nominated, let the electoral officer know who will talk through the issues with you. However, if you become incapacitated with serious illness or injury and unlikely to be able to perform the functions and duties if elected to office, an application to withdraw your nomination on those grounds can be made. Verification from a doctor or lawyer about your situation will be required. See the electoral officer if you need more information about this process.

Q18. What is a candidate profile statement?

A You may provide a candidate profile statement when you lodge your nomination. This is a statement of up to 150 words containing information about yourself and your policies and intentions if elected to office. The profile statement will be included in the voting packs that all electors receive.

Your candidate statement can be submitted in Māori and English, but the information contained in each language must be substantially consistent with the information contained in the other language. Each language has to be within a 150-word limit.

Your profile statement must be true and accurate. The electoral officer is not required to verify or investigate any information included in your statement.

Your profile can include a recent passport size colour photograph.

In addition, your candidate profile statement must state whether or not your principal place of residence is in the area you are seeking election, e.g., 'My principal place of residence is in the Kōhanga Moa General Ward', or 'My principal place of residence is not in the Kōhanga Moa General Ward'. This is not part of the 150-word limit.

See section 61 of the Local Electoral Act 2001 for more information.

Q19. When do nominations close?

A Nominations close at 12 noon Friday 12 August 2022.

It is strongly recommended that candidates do not leave lodging their nomination until the last day, as to do so may mean having to queue and should there be an error with the nomination, little time to have it corrected.

Q20. How much can I spend on my campaign?

A There is a limit on what you can spend on your campaign and it relates to the population of the area you are standing for.

The maximum amount that can be spent by a candidate cannot exceed the limits set out below:

Local government area population	Expenditure limit
Up to 4,999	$3,500
5,000 – 9,999	$7,000
10,000 – 19,999	$14,000
20,000 – 39,999	$20,000
40,000 – 59,999	$30,000
60,000 – 79,999	$40,000
80,000 – 99,999	$50,000
100,000 – 149,999	$55,000
150,000 – 249,999	$60,000
250,000 – 1,000,000	$70,000
1,000,000 or more	$100,000*

*plus 50 cents for each elector

For example, a candidate in the Kōhanga Moa General Ward (which has a population in the range of 5,000 – 9,999) can spend up to $7,000 inclusive of GST.

If you stand for more than one position, the amount you can spend is the highest amount for one position. You cannot add positions together to allow you to spend more than the limit.

All candidates are required to lodge an electoral donations and expenses return within 55 days after the day on which the successful candidates are declared to be elected (by 7 December 2022).

If a candidate is outside New Zealand on this day, the return must be filed within 76 days after election result day.

If a return is not submitted within the required time period, the non-return will be advised to the New Zealand Police for enforcement.

The return needs to be received before a candidate nomination deposit is refunded if appropriate.

Q21. Can I raise campaign funds from donations, and can I claim expenses?

A Yes, you can raise funds and claim expenses from your campaign. There is very specific legislation about donations and expenses which you need to abide by. See the electoral officer if you need more information.

The preliminary electoral roll will be available for inspection at:

Councils monitor their websites and take down any campaign related posts.

 - Are you on the Parliamentary Electoral Roll at your current address in the New Plymouth District Council area?

 - No or Don't Know

It is an offence (carrying a fine of up to $5,000 if convicted) to interfere in any way with an elector with the intention of influencing or advising the elector as to how he or she should vote. A You need to complete an enrolment form for this. You can either:

Enrolment

Q26. Where can I view the electoral roll that will be used for this election?

A The preliminary electoral roll will be available for public inspection for a one-month period from Friday 15 July 2022 to Friday 12 August 2022.

- enrol online at www.vote.nz

- pick a form up at your local New Zealand Post agency

Or

Is this your main place of residence?

- No
Are you on the Parliamentary Electoral Roll at an address in another district?

Q28. I am a student and spend my time in different places. Where should I enrol?

- A You should enrol where you spend the greater part of your time.

Q29. I am a New Zealand Māori; do I need to enrol on the Māori roll?

- A Not necessarily. If you are enrolling for the first time you can decide whether you want to go on the Parliamentary Māori Electoral Roll or the Parliamentary General Electoral Roll by signing the appropriate panel on the parliamentary elector enrolment form.

However, if you have already made that choice you will have to wait until the next Māori Option period to change, which occurs following the next census, likely in 2023.

If a person is enrolled on the Māori Electoral Roll, that person will be able to vote for the mayor, the 'at large' councillors, the Māori ward councillor and the respective community board members. If a person is enrolled on the General Electoral Roll, that person will be able to vote for the mayor, the 'at large' councillors, the respective general ward councillors and the respective community board members.

Q30. How do I know whether I am enrolled?

- A The Electoral Commission will be undertaking a roll update campaign at the beginning of July 2022 for the Parliamentary Electoral Roll which forms the basis of the electoral roll for the New Plymouth District Council elections.

If you do not receive a letter in the post in early July 2022 the chances are you are not enrolled, or your details are incorrect. You will then need to complete a Parliamentary Electoral Roll enrolment form.

You can check to see if you are enrolled at www.vote.nz or by phoning 0800 36 76 56.

The non-resident ratepayer enrolment form should be returned to the electoral officer or an electoral official by 12 August 2022 and no later than 7 October 2022 in order to vote.

If it is easier you can call at a special voting venue during the voting period (Friday 16 September 2022 to 12 noon Saturday 8 October 2022) and complete the ratepayer enrolment form and have your special vote at the same time.

For special vote availability, see Q48.

In no case does this allow you to have two votes at an election.

Is your name on the rates notice?

➤ No

A You may not be eligible to be on the ratepayer electoral roll. Contact the electoral office on 0800 922 822.

Is it after Wednesday 21 September 2022 and I believe I am not correctly registered on the electoral roll?

➤ No

A You will need to complete a Parliamentary Electoral Roll enrolment form. These are available at any New Zealand Post agency, or you can enrol online at www.vote.nz or ring 0800 36 76 56 or send your name and address to Freetext 3676.

You will need to apply for a special vote – for special vote availability, see Q48.

Q36. I didn't get my voting document, so I called and got a special vote. Now I have two voting documents. Which one should I use?

A Use the original one and destroy the special vote.

Voting

Q34. Is it a postal vote and will I be sent my voting documents in the mail?

Is it before Wednesday 21 September 2022 and I believe I am correctly registered on the electoral roll?

➤ Yes

A Please wait until the mail has been delivered on Wednesday 21 September 2022. If your voting document is not received, then please call the electoral office on 0800 922 822.

Is it after Wednesday 21 September 2022 and I believe I am correctly registered on the electoral roll?

➤ Yes

A You will need to apply for a special vote – for special vote availability, see Q48.

Q37. I received a voting document for a member of my family (e.g. child, parent) and have Power of Attorney for that person. Can I vote for that person?

A No – Power of Attorney does not apply to voting for that person.

Q38. I received a voting document for a member of my family (e.g. child, parent) who does not live here. What should I do with the voting document?

A If they are overseas, you could fast post them to the person or destroy them if that is not practicable.

If they are for an elderly parent who is incapable of voting, please destroy them by ripping/cutting them up. You cannot vote on their behalf unless instructed by them.

Q39. I received a voting document that does not belong to me and I don't know this person or where this person has gone.

A Write GNA (Gone No Address) on the envelope and put it back in the mail.

Q40. What is that barcode that I can see through the return envelope or on the front of the voting document?

A It is a legal requirement to scan the barcode to mark the electoral roll that you have returned your vote so we can ensure that we do not receive two votes from the same person.

Q41. How do you ensure the secrecy of my vote?

A Returned envelopes containing a voting document cannot be opened until there is a JP present. The JP is required to sign off that the processes used by the electoral officer meet the legal requirements.

Note that the voter's name is not shown on the voting document.

When the envelope is opened the only thing the electoral office is looking for is that the vote for each election is valid.

This means that for STV elections we make sure that no preference numbers are used more than once or omitted, (e.g., 1, 2, 3, 3, 4, 5), and that there is always a number 1 marked against a candidate's name. It should be like this: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, etc., in numerical order up to as many preferences as the voter wishes to vote for.

For FPP elections we are making sure that the voter's intention is clear and the voter has not ticked or marked more than the number of candidates than there are vacancies.

Q42. Do I have to vote? I don't know any of these candidates.

A No, you don't have to vote, but we do encourage you to vote and exercise your democratic right.

You don't have to vote for all candidates or for all elections. But your vote is important because the people elected will be responsible for making decisions about what happens in your community for the next three years.

To help you get to know about the candidates:

- there may be candidate meetings being held if you wish to go and hear what policies the different candidates are advocating for;

- there is a candidate profile booklet that comes with the voting document in which there is a photo and a statement from each candidate. This information will also be available on the council's website (www.npdc.govt.nz) after nominations close (expected 19 August 2022);

- candidates may have their own website page, social media page(s), advertise in local newspapers or send out information to letterboxes in your area;

- local media are likely to cover information about the election.

Q43. Do I have to post my voting document back?

A You can post it but make sure you have it in the mail by Tuesday 4 October 2022 to make sure it gets back to us in time (by 12 noon Saturday 8 October 2022).

However, you can also hand deliver your voting document to a ballot box during the voting period (Friday 16 September 2022 to 12 noon Saturday 8 October 2022).

For ballot box locations see Q48.

Q44. I have lost my return envelope.

A You can use an envelope of your own and put the return address and Freepost number on it. (You will not need to put a stamp on the envelope if you write the Freepost number on the envelope and post it in New Zealand).

Q45. I am on the Unpublished Parliamentary Roll and I want a special vote.

A You will need to apply for a special vote – for special vote availability, see Q48.

Q46. I didn't receive my voting document; how do I obtain a special vote?

Are you on the Parliamentary Electoral Roll for the address you want to vote for?

➤ Yes

A You will need to apply for a special vote – for special vote availability, see Q48.

Are you on the Parliamentary Electoral Roll for the address you want to vote for?

➤ No/Don't Know

A If you are not enrolled or not enrolled correctly on the Parliamentary Electoral Roll, you will need to complete an enrolment form for this. You can pick one up at any New Zealand Post agency, or you can enrol online at www.vote.nz or ring 0800 36 76 56 or send your name and address to Freetext 3676. This form needs to be with the Registrar of Electors before close of business Friday 7 October 2022.

You will need to apply for a special vote – for special vote availability, see Q48.

Q47. I spoiled my voting documents/I have made a mistake on my documents. What can I do?

A If you can amend it so that your voting intention is clear, then do so.

If necessary, we can issue you with a special voting document (for special vote availability, see Q48), but this will take time and require you to complete a declaration.

Q48. Where can I have a special vote?

A Special votes can be obtained from:

- New Plymouth District Council, Civic Centre, 84 Liardet Street, New Plymouth
- or by phoning 0800 922 822.

The availability of the above location is subject to any COVID-19 restrictions in place. Should any COVID-19 restrictions be in place, refer to the council's website.

Q49. I am going away and will not be here when the voting documents are posted out.

A You will need to apply for a special vote – for special vote availability, see Q48.

Q50. Do I have to vote for all the candidates for any issue? If I don't vote for all the candidates or all the issues on my voting document, will all my votes be informal?

A Under STV you can vote for all or as many candidates as you wish but these must be in order of your preference and no number can be repeated. Remember for STV, you rank the candidates you want to elect from number 1 onwards.

For FPP you can vote for as many candidates as you want to but not more than the number of positions available on the voting document. So, if you are electing one regional council member then you can vote for one candidate. Remember, for FPP you tick the candidate you want to elect.

You can decide not to vote for one or more of the different elections on your voting document. This does not invalidate votes for other elections on your voting document.

Q51. Why can't I vote for a certain candidate who is standing for a different ward, community board or other issue?

A You can only vote for the elections relevant to the area in which you live. You cannot vote for a candidate who is standing for example in another ward because you are not an elector of that other ward.

Q52. My partner's document and mine are different and there are more/less things to vote for. Why is the list of candidates different?

A You will need to call the electoral office on 0800 922 822.

Q53. I have received two voting documents.

A You will need to call the electoral office on 0800 922 822.

Q54. Do all the staff working on the election know who I voted for?

A No, your vote remains secret under the required separate roll scrutiny and vote counting procedures.

Q55. Can I help someone fill out their voting document?

A Under the Local Electoral Act 2001, you cannot interfere or influence any person as to how they can vote.

If authorised by a voter who is physically impaired, visually impaired or for whom English is a second language, a person can assist them to vote as directed by the voter.

Q56. What happens to all the voting documents after the elections?

A They are delivered to the New Plymouth District Court and kept for 21 days so that the Court can access them should there be any application for a recount or petition for inquiry.

After 21 days, the Court is responsible for destroying them.

Q57. What is STV and how do I vote in an STV election?

A STV is used for the New Plymouth District Council elections.

STV stands for single transferable voting and is a preferential system of voting where you can rank as few or as many candidates as you like. It is a single vote which can be transferred between candidates to ensure the vote contributes to the election of at least one candidate and is not wasted.

If a popular candidate does not need all the votes they receive, a proportion is transferred to the voter's next preference. On the other hand, if a candidate is not popular and receives few votes, those votes are transferred to a voter's next preference.

For more information about STV, go to www.stv.govt.nz

To exercise an STV vote, start by writing the number 1 in the box next to the candidate you most want to be elected. Write the number 2 next to your second most preferred candidate and so on 3, 4, 5 etc.

You can write as many preferences or as few as you like up to however many candidates are standing for that election.

You must write the number 1 for your vote to be counted. Do not write the same number more than once, e.g., 1, 2, 3, 3, 4, 5, and do not miss a number from your preferences, e.g., 1, 2, 4, 5, 6.

Q58. What about FPP?

A This is the first past the post (FPP) voting system and used for the Taranaki Regional Council elections. The candidate that gets the most votes win.

You should mark those you want to vote for with a tick in the circle. Do not vote for more than the number of candidates shown in the instructions.

Election Results

Q59. When will we know the results of the election?

A Progress results will be announced in the afternoon of election day.

Preliminary results will be announced on Sunday 9 October 2022, once all votes received at the council offices (up until 12 noon on election day) have been delivered to the electoral office in Auckland and processed.

The official results will be announced when special votes have been checked and included in the final result, expected to be Thursday 13 October 2022.

Q60. How will I find out?

Q65. Would being an elected member take up much time?
